To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch:
Sir.—I have read with much interest the discussions on the various questions that have been and are now before the General Assembly. No gore important question has originated in that body than that of electing county superintendents of schools by popular vote. There is no reason why they should not be cleeted by popular vote. There is no reason why they should not be cleeted by the people, and many reasons why the people, and many reasons why the results to much tentralized into a few hands. It is too marries are of political corruption. Politics should not be allowed to enter the public school system of our State. Mr. Gilliam has opposed the election of superintendents only on selfash grounds. The stand that he takes is too narrow. He opposes it on the grounds that a few counties in the state will elect Republican superintendents.
